

Jenny

John Mayall

My blues for Jenny means she's not around I wish my Jenny could be homeward bound I'd live through all my lonely confusion if I c'd only see her again

I think of Jenny as a memory
I wish my Jenny could be here with me
I'd live through all my lonely confusion if I c'd only see her
again

I don't see Jenny - and the years pass by Maybe that Jenny gotta 'nother guy
again

I dream of Jenny and the night is cold My bed is empty, need her now to hold
again
