

Somebody's Gettin' It

Johnnie Taylor

Somebody's gettin' it
Somebody's gettin' your love
Somebody's gettin' it
Somebody's gettin' your love

My eyes are open
I don't like what I see
Somebody's gettin' my action
Someone other than me

'Cause when I kiss you
It just ain't the same
You slipped the other night
And called me someone else's name

Somebody's gettin' it
Somebody's gettin' your love
Somebody's gettin' it
Somebody's gettin' your love

I thought I had you
In the palm of my hand
Tried to hide you from
All the other men

You knew I was tipping
With someone else
You gave me enough rope
To hang myself

Somebody's gettin' it
Somebody's gettin' your love
Somebody's gettin' it
Somebody's gettin' your love

Somebody done got it
And split the scene
I should've been home
If you know what I mean

Say it again
Somebody done got it
And split the scene
I should've been home
If you know what I mean

I should've been home
I was not around, yeah
Leaving you lonely
While I was having my fun

You refused to be lonely
Just waiting for me
So you found someone else
To keep you company

(Who done it?)

I don't know
(Lord)
But I sure would like to know
Messing round with my stuff

(Who done it?)
I don't know
Well, well, well

Somebody's gettin' it
Somebody's gettin' it

Somebody's gettin' it
Somebody's gettin' it

Somebody's gettin' it
Somebody's gettin' it

Somebody's gettin' it
Somebody's gettin' it

Somebody's gettin' it
Somebody's gettin' it

Somebody's gettin' it
Somebody's gettin' it
