

The Fool Strikes Again

Johnny Paycheck

Once again she offers more than I'm deserving
And once again I'll do some foolish thing
To break her lovin' heart
Everytime we put the pieces back together
The fool in me will jump right out and tear it all apart

Yes, the fool strikes again
Lady luck never smiles on those who cheat to win
Every time I get her back
The devil tempts me into sin
And with a smile on his face
The fool strikes again

Yes, the fool strikes again
Lady luck never smiles on those who cheat to win
Every time I get her back
The devil tempts me into sin
And with a smile on his face
The fool strikes again
Yes, the fool strikes again
