

The Woman Loves Me Right

Johnny Paycheck

When I come home from working
So tired with all that aching in my head
She meets me with a warm kiss
Rubs my neck and puts me straight to bed

Then I lay there in comfort
Knowing she's beside me I will rest all through the night
'Cause when my baby loves me
Heaven knows the woman loves me right

I know that I have just as much
As any man has ever known before
And I would be a bit so surprised to know
That when it comes to love that I have more

And when darkness falls upon me and settles in my path
I'm not afraid, she's my light
'Cause when my baby loves me
Heaven knows the woman loves me right

When my baby loves me
Yes, there's nothing more than I can ever say
She's always been an angel
She's never failed me in anyway

And when darkness falls upon me and settles in my path
I'm not afraid, she's my light
'Cause when my baby loves me
Heaven knows the woman loves me right

When my baby loves me
Heaven knows the woman loves me right
