

You Once Lived Here

Johnny Paycheck

Mayor gave me the key to the city
The welcome wagon had already appeared
But again I'll be packing and leaving
For it's plain now that you once lived here

It may be that I'll never forget you
'Cause your love and love lives everywhere
Could it be that I'll always be sayin'
I've gotta go now for you once lived here

I see your face in the cool of the evening
I hear your voice in each breeze cloud and clear
Oh there must be a town without your memories
But not this one 'cause you once lived here
No not this one 'cause you once lived here
