

You Touched My Life

Johnny Paycheck

Somewhere in the darkened corners of my mind
Lived the mem'ries of the love I had one time
There among the anxious from a burning yesterday
I can't find peace of mind because you touched my life one time

Because you touched my life one time and loved me for a day
I'm clinging to a dream come true because you passed my way

Precious are the moments that I spent with you
Treasured more than diamonds are those dreams we knew
Tender mem'ries linger from that day when you were mine
And I find peace of mind because you touched my life one time

Precious are the moments...
Yes I find peace of mind because you touched my life one time
