

Desire

Jon McLaughlin

I want desire
'Cause your love only gets me abused

I must be tough
I must behave, I must keep fighting
Don't give it up
I want to keep compromising
Open your arms and pray
To the truth you're denying
Give in to the game
To the sense that you've been hiding

Is it desire?
Is it love that I'm feeling for you?
I want desire
'Cause your love only gets me abused

Give me that rush
I want to show you what you've been missing
Am I enough to keep your other lovers hidden?
Open your arms and pray
To the truth you're denying
Give in to the game
To the sense that you've been hiding

Is it desire?
Is it love that I'm feeling for you?
I want desire
'Cause your love only gets me abused

Is it desire?
Or is it love that I'm feeling for you?
I want desire
'Cause your love only gets me abused
Is it desire?
Or is it love that I'm feeling for you?
I want desire
'Cause your love only gets me abused
