

Love Her Like She's Leaving

Jon Pardi

Things been goin' pretty damn good
Hell of a lot better than I thought they would
When her last goodbye came on back
I swore then it'd be the last time I ever let her down
'Cause what I didn't know then I sure know now

I'm gonna love her like she's leaving
Like she's packed up her heart
Like there's no tomorrow
So she don't get too far
I won't give her one good reason
I'll be the me that she believes in
I'm gonna love her
I'm gonna love her like she's leaving

Empty bottle and an empty bed
Missing her memories poundin' my head
The thought of her with someone else
How could I do that to myself?
And watch her walk out that front door
Is somethin' I don't wanna see no more

Yeah, I'm gonna love her like she's leaving
Like she's packed up her heart
Like there's no tomorrow
So she don't get too far
I won't give her one good reason
I'll be the me that she believes in
I'm gonna love her
I'm gonna love her like she's leaving

Things been goin' pretty damn good
Hell of a lot better than I thought they would
