

Never Alone

Jonah33

It feels like you're running in circles but out of the loop and you're dying Dying to know just exactly what truth is you're tired of liars
And you just wanna be left alone

Can you feel the intensity filling the air as I'm screaming
For you to go with me where no one would dare but you stare at me in disbelief Cause you don't wanna be left alone
You are never really alone
You are never really alone

Believe me when I tell you that there's only one thing you're missing and honestly Once you believe it can never be taken away from you so here's the truth
You don't have to go it alone
You are never really alone
You are never really alone
