

The Difference

Jonah33

Good and evil decide to coincide inside
The four walls of this body
Rendered helpless, they cannot help the sick and dying
And the difference between them is gone
How can we say clearly?

How can they see clearly if there's no evidence?
They believe when they see
Each day we live the difference

Heaven help us, but they've already tried
And so we're left with one conclusion
Without Jesus we are nothing more than liars
Filled with grand illusion

How can they see clearly?

You ask me
How can we be free from this demise we're in?
I tell you repentance
Repent from all this filthy sin

How can they see clearly?
We live the difference
