

Gypsy Woman

Jonathan Clay

I've got a gypsy woman
Likes to dance all over me
I've got a gypsy woman
With ebb and flow just like the sea

Everything she wants
Everything she wants
Everything she wants
She knows I'll give her

I've got a gypsy woman
hanging love over my head
I've got a gypsy woman
laying beside me in my bed

Everything she wants
Everything she wants
Everything she wants
She knows I'll give her

Stole my heart, I must confess Took my love, put it to the test leading me on, I can't get no rest
I'm in love with a gypsy woman

Everything she wants
Everything she wants
Everything she wants
She knows I'll give her
