

I Had a Dream That the Sea

Jonathan Richman

I had this dream that the sea was calling me home
But I was scared to go
In my dream the sea was calling me home
But I was scared of losing myself
Scared of just being a blend in with everyone else
And it felt like dying
The dream felt like dying
When the sea was calling me home

In my dream the sea was calling me home
But I was scared to go
Had a dream that the sea was calling me home
But I was scared of losing myself
Scared of blending in with everyone else
And it felt like dying
When the sea was calling me home