

I'm So Confused

Jonathan Richman

Sometimes I think of only her
Sometimes no
I'm feeling delicate and this must show

I'm so confused
I'm so confused
I'm so confused
I'm so confused

I like to do stuff but I best go slow
I look around now dazed but I don't know

I'm so confused
I'm so confused
I'm so confused
I'm so confused

I think maybe I should just stay alone
But I'm too young to just stay home
I have to sigh now
I have to sigh now

I must stay honest and not play by(?)
So when I need someone I say right at the start

I'm so confused
I'm so confused
I'm so confused
I'm so confused

"You're thinking too much"
I know
"You're thinking about this too much"
I know

I have to sigh now
I have to sigh now

I'm so confused
I'm so confused
I'm so confused
I'm so confused
