

My Baby Love Love Loves Me

Jonathan Richman

(one two three)

Well, my baby love love loves me now

Even more than I prayed for

My baby love love loves me now

Even more than I prayed

I prayed

I asked

But I didn't expect this

My baby love love loves me now

Even more than I prayed for

Even more than I prayed

Well, she loves

She does

But I had to be ready for it

She loves

She does

But I had to be ready

Had to pray, I asked

And I was blessed

Well, my baby love love loves me now

Even more than I prayed for

Even more than I prayed

Well, my baby love love loves me now

Even more than I prayed for

Well, my baby love love loves me now

Even more than I pray

Well, she loves

She hates

But she communicates

And my baby love love loves me now

Even more than I prayed for

Even more than I prayed

Well, she loves

She does

But I had to be ready for it

She loves

She does

But I had to be ready

And I prayed, I asked, yeah

And I was blessed

lalala

My baby love love loves me now

Even more than I prayed for

Even more than I prayed
