

Finally Finding Out

Jordan Knight

I didn't wanna be silent
I had a lot to say
I didn't wanna make moves
Until I paved a way
I'm giving in to something
I never gave before
I'm taking on much less
Because I needed more

I'm learning everyday
I'm goin' all the way
I'm finally finding out
What love is all about
There will be no doubt
I'm finally finding out

And my baby's so good for me
I can see my future in our family
If you believe in something
You gotta hold on tight
You can always feel it better
If you close your eyes

Our love's what's supposed to be
It takes time
Grows out of trust and honesty
If you dive in, change your mind
'Cause you don't know how to swim, baby
I turn the lights and go to sleep
Dream of all that we can be
And wake up knowing we can always try
