

Over It

Jordan Pruitt

You
Got caught up
In all your stuff
And didn't have the time
To think about us
You tried to hide
Behind your lies
You have to face the consequence
I've lost my trust in you
And baby now we're through

I've had enough
And I'm not lookin' back
I'm over it
I'm over it
I'm movin' on cause you blew your chance
So get over it
I'm over it
You broke my heart
Gonna break yours back
I'm over it
So over it
It's time to draw the line
Don't want you to be mine
I'm over it

You
Call me at home
And on my cell phone
Constantly trying to tell me
You
Want me back
Well good luck with that
Mmm, baby I'm not going to play
These games with you
I said we're through (whoa)

I've had enough
And I'm not lookin' back
I'm over it
I'm over it
I'm movin' on cause you blew your chance
So get over it
I'm over it
You broke my heart
Gonna break yours back
I'm over it
So over it
It's time to draw the line
Don't want you to be mine
I'm over it

I've had enough
And I'm over, I'm over, I'm over it
I'm movin' on cause you blew your chance
So get over it
You broke my heart gonna break his back

I'm over it
So over it
It's time to draw the line
Don't want you to be mine
I'm over it

I was yours
You were mine
We were fine
Til you let it all slip away (til you let it all slip away)
And the mistakes
That you made
Can't be changed
I don't care if it makes you insane
Why'd you have to be like that
And do those things behind my back
And now I'm slipping away from you
And I won't come back cause
I hate all the things you put me through (yeah)

I'm over it
I'm over it yeah
Get over it
I'm over it
ooh whoa oh
I'm over it
So over it
It's time to draw the line
Don't want you to be mine
I'm over it

I've had enough
And I'm not looking back
I'm over, I'm over it
I'm movin' on cause you blew your chance
So get over it
You broke my heart gonna break yours back
I'm over it
So over it
It's time to draw the line
Don't want you to be mine
I'm over it

I've had enough
And I'm not lookin' back
I'm over it (yeah, yeah)
I'm over it (yeah yeah)
I'm movin' on cause you blew your chance
So get over it (get over it)
I'm over it
You broke my heart
Gonna break yours back
I'm over it
So over it
It's time to draw the line
