

Man Of The Dark

Jørn Lande

As the night's casting shadows upon the city walls
He finds his way in the dark
Dressed in black to become unseen
He's moving with the secrets of his sacrifice
See the moon in his eyes and the lost paradise
It's weighing him down as he stumbles around... yeah

Lonely road
Leaving burn marks from the fire
Rusty soul
From the spikes that nailed him down

He's a man of the dark
Always hiding in his broken heart
Crying demon of the sun
Forever dying on the run
Till the fighting's done
A man of the dark

When there's love full of sadness
And the answers are unknown
He finds his way through it all

Rising slowly from madness
But the scars can't be undone
He was a dreamer

And the darkness is colder
As the winter gets older
Someone will find
A new dawning of time... oh

He's a man of the dark
Lost his mind and locked his open heart
Icon shadow of the sun
Forever hiding on the run
Till the fighting's done

Lonely road
Leaving burn marks from the fire
Rusty soul
From the spikes that nailed him down
Just a fool to believe in something better
The world is cruel
If you show them who you are

He's a man of the dark
And now he's hiding with his lonely heart
Icon shadow of the sun
Forever crying on the run

He's a man of the dark
Forever black inside his shattered heart
Crying like raindrops to the ground
A weeping willow that was never found
He lost his crown
Man of the dark... yeah

He's a man of the dark
Man of the dark
He's a man
Man of the dark
