

No Beginning No End

José James

I have no beginning I have no end so come to me into the wind I know it's only good or sin so far away from where we danced

The morning Sun upon my face my broken dreams have been replaced they've gone away into the wind have no beginning have no end

Across this land we're home at last a longer journey we will pass I've seen the trouble come to live I've seen the walls against the backs

A hidden truth is in the past the brown the white all come from Black the cradle's broken house is cracked embrace the complicated path

I have no beginning I have no end we only call + listen in my bone my blood the Earth the wind
I have no beginning I have no end

No more pretending we're away the bottom fell from yesterday
+ I never dreamed I'd see you here
+ I never dreamed you'd leave me here

The long and twisted railroad line has joined my feet my head my spine + all education failed to say is that your dreams don't fade away

I am discovery + fate
I am the voice that calls to hate for I am the force that Heaven sent + yes I was born to live again

Someday you'll know what I have said we'll share a memory and bread but until that day I'm in the wind
I have no beginning I have no end
