

Heartbeat and a Melody

Josh Abbott Band

Why'd you have to leave my heart wide open
Look at you always coming and going
I'm finally happy, then you leave me
Without my heartbeat and a melody, oh

I'm still hitting walls in your maze
Every time I turn around girl, I'm so ashamed
Least you can do is finally set me free
To find my heartbeat and a melody

I see you running and it seems so wrong
Sounds like we're singing different songs
Like you and me they can't agree
Leaves me here so solitary
Without my heartbeat and a melody

Black and blistered and oh so blue
You found another and now we're through
What did you expect me to be?
Without a heartbeat and a melody

I see you running and it seems so wrong
Sounds like we're singing different songs
Like you and me they can't agree
Leaves me here so solitary
Without my heartbeat and a melody

Come on, baby, make it real
I need a heart that feels
Like a record turning in the groove
I need you

I see you running and it seems so wrong
Sounds like we're singing different songs
Like you and me they can't agree
Leaves me here so solitary
Without my heartbeat and a melody
Leaves me here so solitary
Without my heartbeat and a melody
