

Kinda Missing You

Josh Abbott Band

It started with "I'm better off without you"
I didn't think your leaving would hit me so damn hard
I can list all the things I miss about you
You left me here with bottles, tears and scars
Trying everything to fix it, but it's in vain
I just can't seem to kick it, gotta numb this pain

Healing just ain't working with this kinda hurting
For me, your love is all I need
I gotta keep that whiskey flying, bird's just like a lion
For me, another shot to set me free
I got that no-more-kissing-you, lovesick-crushing-me,
Feeling-blue day, I'm kinda missing you

Well all those things you did that drove me crazy
Like spin the truth and make me so damn mad
Oh, it's just a couple awful white lies, baby
You wonder if I'm pissed, yeah, just a tad
I just wanna hold you but it's too late
If it weren't I'd take a shot at one more mistake

Healing just ain't working with this kinda hurting
For me, your love is all I need
I gotta keep that whiskey flying, bird's just like a lion
For me, another shot to set me free
I got that no-more-kissing-you, lovesick-crushing-me,
Feeling-blue day, I'm kinda missing you
It ain't hard to do in this town

Oh it's time I'm through
Pass the brew
One more round

Healing just ain't working, yeah, with this kinda hurting
For me, your love is all I need
I gotta keep that whiskey flying, bird's just like a lion
For me, another shot to set me free
I got that no-more-kissing-you, lovesick-crushing-me,
Feeling-blue day, I'm kinda missing you
I got that no-more-kissing-you, lovesick-crushing-me,
Feeling-blue day, I'm kinda missing you
Oh, I'm missing you
