

Kiss You Good

Josh Abbott Band

I don't wanna be a good line, good time
Come and go, leave you alone in the middle of the night
I don't wanna be your walk of shame, forget your name
The one you hate, makes you say "no" next time

I, I just wanna kiss you good tonight
I just wanna show you that I
I just wanna kiss you good
But I don't wanna kiss you good
Kiss you good, kiss you goodnight

And honey, you can rest easy, sleep in
Cuddle up and catching up until afternoon
Yeah, when the daylight starts to fade, won't you stay?
We both know if you go, it's too soon

I, I just wanna kiss you good tonight
I just wanna show you that I
I just wanna kiss you good
But I don't wanna kiss you good
Kiss you good, kiss you goodnight, yeah yeah

Tonight, I just wanna kiss you good tonight
I just wanna show you

I, I just wanna kiss you good tonight
I just wanna show you that I
I just wanna kiss you good
But I don't wanna kiss you good
Kiss you good, kiss you goodnight
I just wanna kiss you good tonight
Don't you wanna kiss me good tonight?
