

She Don't Break

Josh Abbott Band

One look, the earth shook, little miss heaven sent
You're wheels are turning, that fires burnin' for someone so delicate
Oh you crave her, think you can play her like an old guitar
But 3 chords and the truth is you're never gonna break her heart

She may run like the river wide
Cry like rain from a broken sky
She knows she can learn from her mistakes
She may bend, but she don't break

This ain't the first time she's made headlines in our little town
There was someone who was bad news and broke her spirits down
She got back up, she'd had enough, swore she'd never fall again
Sexy and single out with her friends, stronger than she's ever been

She may run like the river wide
Cry like rain from a broken sky
She knows she can learn from her mistakes
She may bend, but she don't break

She may run like the river wide
Cry like rain from a broken sky
She knows she can learn from her mistakes
She may bend, but she don't break
