

This Isn't Easy

Josh Abbott Band

No, I really don't have time to talk to you
And how dare you even ask me after all the hell you put me through
And I never said, I never said this wouldn't be hard
And this time, I've gotta guard my heart

This isn't easy
This isn't easy, yeah
This isn't easy, it's what I gotta do
If I'm ever gonna start to really get over you

The fire inside me stays hot from all your burns
So I fan the flames and lit up all your pictures and your shirts
So what you gotta say, what you gotta say
Makes me think you've really changed

It's too late, it's too late

This isn't easy
This isn't easy, yeah
This isn't easy, it's what I gotta do
If I'm ever gonna start to really get over you

Oh, so curse my name
Baby, you know we never change
Oh, we never change

This isn't easy
This isn't easy, yeah
This isn't easy, it's what I gotta do
If I'm ever gonna start to really get over you
Oh, if I'm ever gonna start to really get over you

So no, I really don't have time to talk to you
