

Tuesday Night

Josh Abbott Band

Made it [?] last week just for Friday
My roommate got too drunk before the game
My ex kept blowing up my phone and wouldn't leave me alone
I can't wait to tell my friends down at Chimy's

Laughin' at the memories
Gettin' busted with fake IDs
Feelin' like tonight we might get way too wild
Every once and a while
You need somethin' to make you feel alright
Sometimes it's just beer and tacos on a Tuesday night

Yesterday sure felt to me like Monday
Seems like everything that could went wrong
Gonna have to some way to just get through this day
A patio is right where I belong

Laughin' at the memories
Actin' like a tease
Feelin' like tonight we might get way too loud
Every once and a while
You need somethin' to make you feel alright
Sometimes it's just beer and tacos on a Tuesday night

Woah oh woah oh
Woah ohh woah ohh

When I'm stressed out and lonely
My rent and work are way passed due
I've got ten bucks to my name
But my God, my plans ain't changed
I already know what I'm gonna do

Laugh at the memories
Someone hook me up please
Feelin' like tonight we might get way too wild
Every once and a while
You need somethin' to make you feel alright

Sometimes it's just beer and tacos on a Tuesday night
Oh, sometimes it's just beer and tacos on a Tuesday night
