Make me a better man
Heal me when no one can
Forgive me God when I fight against Your plan
I want to follow
Make me a vessel of Your love
Without you I don't have enough
Holy Spirit come and fill my cup
And I will follow
I will follow
Lift up my voice and rejoice
I have come to make my choice
As for me there is one voice
I will follow
I will follow

Don't turn to the right or to the left
Many are the roads that lead to death
The Father calls His children home again
If they will follow
Eternities written on every soul
No man can cross that bridge alone
The ransom man He came and paid it all
And He says follow
Come on and follow
Lift up my voice and rejoice
I have come to make my choice
As for me there is one voice
I will follow
I will follow
I will follow
I will follow
(Follow, follow, Jesus, follow You...)
