

Home To Me

Josh Kelley

Isn't it funny how the roads just pass us by
Isn't it crazy how we never get it right
Time is wasted on money and money wasted on lust.
Treat her like a lady and she'll never get enough

Cause' its you that I'm runnin to baby
Its you that I'm feelin for lately and
Its like a pain that never goes away
And it always starts today

Cause you are home to me, Cause you are home to me
Cause you are home to me, Cause you are home to me

Isn't it perfect how the memories feel the same
Isn't it amazing how the song remains unchanged
Time is wasted on money and money wasted on lust
Treat her like a lady and She'll never get enough
