Evil Eye

Josh Ritter

He'll laugh and say that he can't sleep And he don't know the reason why Maybe it's the evil eye Oh, that awful evil eye

Remember how he used to hold you close Now in the middle of the night Oh, the evil eye Oh, that awful evil eye

Someone must really have it in for him The way they're stickin' him with pins

I know he's sick but we can't be sure Still, from everything I've heard It's hard to cure the evil eye Oh, that evil eye

Has he lost weight and his lips gone pale? Covered in little white lies Oh, the evil eye (2x)

You've got me worrying about your health Cuz you don't look so good yourself

Somebody must've gotten hurt a lot By somebody crueler than you thought Now you've got the evil eye Oh, that awful evil eye Evil eye
