

In Your Arms Again

Josh Ritter

And oh, what a thrill it was
To be in your arms again
And oh, what a thrill it was
To be in those arms

And all those plans I had, all they did was hold me down
Those plans I had, they can't hold me now
That I am back
In your arms again

Every airplane has a pilot, locomotive a conductor,
And I who had so many things but did not have a lover.

All those plans I had, all they did was hold me down
Those plans I had, they can't hold me now
That I am back
In your arms again

All those plans I had, all they did was hold me down
Those plans I had, they can't hold me now
That I am back
In your arms again

Doo doo doo, doo doo doo, doo doo doo...
