

Why

Josh Ritter

Why don't you try to be happy
Why must you always be sad
Why spend your only life waiting
To have what you know you can have

Why spend your only life hoping
What a torture to be always blue, darlin'
Why spend your only life waiting
To do what you know what you can do

What's the worst thing that could possibly happen to you?

Why spend your only life hoping
What a torture to be always blue, darlin'
Why spend your only life waiting
To do what you know you can do
Why spend your only life waiting
To do what you know you can do
