

Over Me

Josh Thompson

She ain't never been a smoker
That's just a phase she's going through
She ain't never been a drinker
But tonight it's 90 proof
Never been this close to going this far
With a one night neon stranger she just met at the bar
But there's one thing she's always gonna be
That's over me

Over the past
Over the hurting
Over letting me crawl back
Over bridges I left burning
And over crying herself to sleep
Over me

I find myself a bitch
Full of gin and time to kill
I know Jesus might forgive me
Oh but that angel never will
Now that she put me out of her misery
Her and her mommy put an end to World War 3
And for once they finally agree
Over me

Over the past
Over the hurting
Over letting me crawl back
Over bridges I left burning
And over crying herself to sleep
Over me

Over the past
Over the hurting
Over letting me crawl back
Over bridges I left burning
And over crying herself to sleep
Over
Over me

She ain't never been a smoker
That's just a phase she's going through
