

What Can I Do (But Love You)

Joy Williams

There you were, and there I was.
Was it fate or from above?
Either way, I found just what I need.

All I do is think of you,
Close my eyes and fall into,
A world that's totally made for you and me.

Oh don't you know, I love, love you.
I'll never let go, oh, of you.
In all of my dreams, you're all I see.
What can I do, but love you?

Now I got someone to hold.
To keep me warm when life is cold.
A little sun to melt away the grey.

It happened in the nick of time.
Unexpected, sweet surprise.
With one hello, I'll never be the same.

Oh don't you know, I love, love you.
I'll never let go, oh, of you.
In all of my dreams, you're all I see.
What can I do, but love you?

Oh don't you know, I love, love you.
I'll never let go, oh no, of you.
In all of my dreams, you're all I see.
What can I do, oooh.
In all of my dreams, you're all I see.
What can I do, mmm, but love you?
Love you. I love you.
