

Headin' for a Heartache

Juice Newton

It must be my imagination
Telling and I hear it say
That you've come back; I don't need that
'Cause if I ever let you stay

I'd be headin' for a heartache
Headin' down a dead end road
Headin' for a heartache
Headin' for a heartache I know

My heart gets in a situation
Every time I look in your eyes
You look so sweet, but I can't look deep
'Cause that's where the danger lies

I'd be headin' for a heartache
Headin' down a dead end road
Headin' for a heartache
Headin' for a heartache I know

If hurtin' was my destination
You would be the place to go
I'd take that string down memory lane
And all of the way I'd know

I'd be headin' for a heartache
Headin' down a dead end road
Headin' for a heartache
Headin' for a heartache I know

I'd be headin' for a heartache
Headin' down a dead end road
Headin' for a heartache
Headin' for a heartache I know
