

(You Don't Hear) The One That Gets You

Juice Newton

Love's like a bullet fired without aiming
Never intended to kill
The squeeze of the trigger, the shot in the dark
You don't feel a thing when it's real

Yeah, it's true
You don't hear the one that gets you
You don't hear the sound, it just knocks you down
And you find yourself falling again

Love's like an arrow ready to fly
As soon as you draw back the bow
Well, your hands are shaking, 'cause your heart is aching
So better to just let it go

Yeah, it's true
You don't hear the one that gets you
You don't hear the sound, it just knocks you down
And you find yourself falling again

Oh, oh, there's no way to know
It all seems to happen so fast
Oh, oh, just let it go
It could be the one that'll last

Love's like a laser, cuts like a diamond
Right through the walls 'round your heart
Before you know it, all your defenses
Are slowly falling apart

Yeah, it's true
You don't hear the one that gets you
You don't hear the sound, it just knocks you down (it just knocks you down)
You find yourself falling again

Yeah, it's true
You don't hear the one that gets you
You don't hear the sound, it just knocks you down
You find yourself falling again
