Jukebox the Ghost

Strictly business, nothing more
As I held the door (Held the door)
What a saint walked in (Ah)
As two hearts started dancing
A new story begins

Oh, my poor soul starts flying like a cannonball
What goes up must come down
Take my advice and run while you still

(Can!) To the races, got my love jumpstarted
The only one I want is you
(Say it again, hey!)
I hear the bells, and they're ringing already
Four kids and a big ol' wedding, singing "You"
(Say it again, hey!)
Now as I make the long walk home
You got me feeling like an overdose, singing (You)

Hey, don't act surprised
A goldfish wouldn't love you twice
And your gravity, my depravity won't take my advice (So nice)
I never run while I still

(Can) To the races, got my love jumpstarted
The only one I want is you (Hey!)
I hear the bells, and they're ringing already
Four kids and a big ol' wedding, singing "You"
(Say it again, hey!)
Now as I make the long walk home
You got me feeling like an overdose, singing (You)
(Well now)

Then my heart starts attacking and the arteries clapping
Trapping all of-, it's a poison in the morning
I was sure that she was slipping me
Goddamn, maybe

What goes up must come down
Take my advice and run while you still

Off to the races, got my love jumpstarted
The only one I want is you
(Say it again, hey!)
I hear the bells, and they're ringing already
Four kids and a big ol' wedding, singing "You"
(Say it again, hey!)
Now as I make the long walk home
You got me feeling like an overdose, singing (You)
(Well now)

Maybe I just gotta pay the price
(Money, money, money, money)
Maybe I just gotta pay the price
(Money, money, money, money)
Maybe I just gotta pay the price
(Money, money, money, money)

Maybe I just gotta pay the price
(Money, money, money, money)

Maybe I just gotta pay the price
I feel broken, but maybe I just gotta pay the price (Ooh)
I keep hoping that maybe I just gotta pay the price
Maybe I just gotta pay the price, oh
(Maybe I just gotta pay the price
Maybe I just gotta pay the price)
What goes up must come down
Take my advice and run while you still
