

The Photograph

Julia Sheer

I've been trying so hard
Waiting for something
Got your picture beside my bed
When I look in your eyes
I can see a reflection
Of the words that we left
Unsaid

And I was yours at the perfect time
But I just had to leave

Looking back
Endless memories in a photograph
Come back
Wishing for another day with you

I didn't see this coming
Thought that we were fine
Now I know I'm wrong
But the hardest part
Is that goodbye is forever
And how you're moving on

And I was yours at the perfect time
But I just had to leave

Looking back
Endless memories in a photograph
Come back
Wishing for another day with you

Holding hands in June
Makes me think of you
And the way we danced
Under the summer moon

When you laid me down
I softly hit the ground
I smile with the night
That's where it all felt right.

All felt right...

Looking back
Endless memories in a photograph
Come back
Wishing for another day

Looking back
Endless memories in a photograph
Come back
Wishing for another day with you
