Julie Roberts

I'll admit it got to me Hearing your voice on my machine It took all I had to just let you talk And not pick up where we left off Every night since your goodbye I hit my knees and closed my eyes And I pray that you'd come back Too many tears washed out that bridge You wanna cross, but baby, it's too late for that Last night would've been a different story But the morning sun must've done something for me 'Cause I bet I'd gone the other way If you'd called yesterday If you'd called yesterday This victory runs bitter sweet Through the heart and soul of me But I sip my coffee and watch the sun rise Makin' its way to a bluer sky Every night since your goodbye I hit my knees and closed my eyes And I prey that you'd come back Too many tears washed out that bridge You wanna cross, but baby, it's too late for that Last night would've been a different story But the morning sun must've done something for me 'Cause I bet I'd gone the other way If you'd called yesterday Last night would've been a different story But the morning sun must've done something for me 'Cause I bet I'd gone the other way If you'd called yesterday If you'd called yesterday If you'd called yesterday
