

Dark Cadence

Julien-K

You could find yourself in the rain
Innocent
Innocent

As I confess to your truth
With the lights turned down
Innocent
In your faith
A rush of blood hits your face
As you turn and walk away
I've been away for a while
Let's go away for a while
As I dance to the beat of your drum and my life goes stereo
I've been away for a while
Let's go away for a while
Oh holy light
You take what you've been given
Oh holy light
You take it as your given
Your mouth and your tongue
they get in your way
Pull it all out - the illusion of tomorrow
Oh holy light
You take what you've been given
As the chaos rains
As the lighting drowns
In a flash
Like your faith
A rush a blood blocks the way
As you try to get away
I've been awake for a while Walking away from denial
I've seen your God
I see your ghost
I see your young
The less you know
I see your God
I'm easy girl
I've seen your God I've seen enough to let him go
I've seen your God
I've seen him go
I see your young
The less you know
I've seen your God
I have to know
