

Dregs of the World

Julien-K

I need to throw you away to forget your face to make myself clean and new

I feel it pounding away it's inside my brain it's nothing to do with you

Inside I'm wasting away
I'm feeling insane
I'm running away from you

I know this isn't a game
You're feeling your way You're making your dreams come true

But I feel it's tearin' away it's fusing you're based it's making it's way through you

This nightmare's crashing down on me
Raining down on me
No one to blame for me

I see that taking control of me
taking away from me
breaking away from me

oh oh
(you try to take me away)
as twilight falls we crumble
(you try to take me away)
oh oh
you try to take me away

I need to swallow my pain stop running away face all that I made with you

Inside me winds step with race
I'm living the pain
I'm learning to see through you

But I want to tear you apart to rip out your heart to crash through this soul in you

This nightmare's crashing down on me
Raining down on me

taking away from me
breaking away from me

(you try to take me away)

as twilight falls we crumble
oh oh
you try to take me away
as my eyes let you stumble
(you try to take me away)
oh oh
(you try to take me away)

you try to take me away
