

Palm Springs Reset

Julien-K

I feel it on my face
(The sun is in your smile)
There is no second place
(No living in denial)
I'm burning down these gates
(We'll make it all worthwhile)
I feel the pressure fade

If I'm coming undone, will you pray for me?
If I'm crawling along, will you, will you cradle me?
And if you stumble upon the truth, will you stay with me?
And if we happen to find our youth, will it set us free?

I feel it on my face
(The sun is in your smile)
There is no second place
(No living in denial)
I'm burning down these gates
(We'll make it all worthwhile)
The pressure fades away

If I'm walking alone, will you walk with me?
If I bury myself in you, will you uncover me?
And if you happen to hear my call, will you wait for me?
And if we're corrupted by it all, we can be redeemed

I feel it on my face
(The sun is in your smile)
There is no second place
(No living in denial)
I'm burning down these gates
(We'll make it all worthwhile)
The pressure fades away

And if you stumble upon the truth, will you stay with me?
And if we happen to find our youth, will it set us free?

I feel it on my face
(The sun is in your smile)
There is no second place
(No living in denial)
I'm burning down these gates
(We'll make it all worthwhile)
I feel the pressure fade

I feel it on my face
(The sun is in your smile)
There is no second place
(No living in denial)
I'm burning down these gates
(We'll make it all worthwhile)
The pressure fades away
