

Strange Invisible

Julien-K

When I could not turn it around
When I could not make it happen
And the echo drags me down, oh oh
I shouldn't have let you go
'Cause now you're fearless

As you feel (don't follow)
As you feel the pull of the stranger
And the energy from the waves
The sound the sounds the same
As you scream my name again (don't follow)
As you feel the pull of the stranger
And the energy from the waves
The sound the sounds the same
As you scream my name again

When I could not turn it up
When I could not make it happen
There's no writing on the wall
I shouldn't have let you go
'Cause now you're fearless

As you feel (don't follow)
As you feel the pull of the stranger
And the energy from the waves
The sound the sounds the same
As you scream my name again (don't follow)
As you feel the pull of the stranger
And the energy from the waves
The sound the sounds the same
As you scream my name again

As you feel (don't follow)
As you feel the pull of the stranger
And the energy from the waves
The sound the sounds the same
As you scream my name again (don't follow)
As you feel the pull of the stranger
And the energy from the waves
The sound the sounds the same
As you scream my name again
