

Champagne

July For Kings

I want to dream you
A beautiful dream.
I want to hold you
In the dark
It would seem
That no one sees me like you do
No one moves the way you move
And I can't see anything else
I want to take you now.
Honestly, you're killing me.

And we're drinking
Cheap champagne alone in my room
Drinking
Your name, you wear my favorite perfume
Cheap champagne
The flowers in bloom
Drinking your name
Champagne.

Champagne

If I was stronger
I would take down the moon
We could hang it up
In the corner of your bedroom
And if at night you could not sleep
You could watch it shine
Like counting sheep
And only I'll know where the moon has gone.

I want to take you now.

Honestly, your killing me.

We're drinking
Cheap champagne alone in my room
Drinking
Your name, you wear my favorite perfume
Cheap champagne
The flowers in bloom
Drinking your name
Champagne.

Sitting on the floor of a spinning room
The morning sun won't be coming too soon
It's the way you look in that dress
There's nothing I can taste that compares to you
And nothing I can say that's quite as true
As the gift you are. I confess...

That I... I...
I want to dream you
A beautiful dream.
I want to hold you
In the dark
It would seem

That no one sees me like you do
No one moves the way you move
And I can't see anything else

Champagne with you in my room
Drinking
Your name, you wear my favorite perfume
Cheap champagne
The flowers in bloom
Drinking your name
Champagne.
Cheap champagne with you in my room
Drinking
Your name, you wear my favorite perfume
Champagne
The flowers in bloom
Drinking your name
Champagne.
