

New

July For Kings

We rolled the windows down
we left our midwest town straight for the sunset perfectly wonderfully
I had a dream last night I was chasing lucid lights around the hazy night over and over
'till I find you might be sleeping too

I had a dream last night
I remember feeling alright we stood collecting the stars we step we stepped into my car you took to face the day

We started driving

We rolled the windows down
perfectly wonderfully new
let's hope we'll never be found we'll make tomorrow perfectly wonderfully new

Perfectly wonderfully new

I've been thinking lately about this tiresome way like one perpetual day forever and ever seemed so faded, jaded and far away

Well I had a dream last night I found ???
I think I put them away Again, again until the day we meet and sleep again

Again, yeah, I'm driving faster

let's hope we'll never be found

perfectly wonderful

let's hope we'll never be found

New, yeah, perfectly wonderful perfectly wonderful, perfectly wonderfully new
