

Johnny + Mary

July Talk

Hey look, Johnny is here
He's in the corner with his hands on his ears
His little death wish was the talk of the city
He knew about it before everyone here

He was ahead of his time
He had a beautiful mind
Johnny's underground with the rest of them talking
Doing his time

So cheer up
What's wrong now?
Cheer up
(We all know)
We all know we're going down
So cheer up
Cheer up
Cheer up

Hey look, Mary is here
She rolls her eyes at all the girls in the mirror
They pose for cameras that aren't really there
Why can't they figure out there's better than this?

She dances catharsis
Cries out like a child
Well, you'd be screaming too if all that's happened to her
Had ever happened to you

So cheer up
What's wrong now?
Cheer up
We all know we're going down
So cheer up
Chin up

Cheer up
What's wrong now?
Cheer up
We all know we're going down
So cheer up
Chin up

Cheer up

Cheer up
Little junkie
Cheer up
Little fugitive
Cheer up
Put your camera down

Cheer up
Little vixen
Cheer up
Little amateur
Cheer up

Put your camera down
