

Anchored in Love

June Carter Cash

I've found the sweet haven of sunshine at last
Jesus abiding above
His pure arms around me are lovingly cast
Sweetly He tells His love

The tempest is o'er
(The danger, the tempest forever is o'er)
I'm safe evermore
(My anchor is holding, I'm safe ever more)
What gladness, what rapture is mine, the danger is past
(The water is peaceful, the danger is past)
I'm anchored at last
(The anchor is holding, I'm safe now at last)
I'm anchored in love divine

His blood shall control me
Through life and in death
Completely I'll trust to the end
Joe and June Carter
I'll praise Him each hour
Of my last fleeting breath
Sing of my soul's best friend

He saw me in danger and lovingly came
To pilot my storm beaten soul
Sweet peace He has spoken now bless His dear name
Billows no longer roll

The tempest is o'er
(The danger, the tempest forever is o'er)
I'm safe ever more
(My anchor is holding, I'm safe ever more)
What gladness, what rapture is mine, the danger is past
(The water is peaceful, the danger is past)
I'm anchored at last
(The anchor is holding, I'm safe now at last)
I'm anchored in love divine
