Thank you once again
I can barely get through it
I can't draw a line without it falling off the page
And I can't hold a face
Without it moving from the frame
'Cause there's a tremor in my lips and an itching in my eyes
It's all 'cause of you

So take the covers off
They been keeping off the dust
Steady down the arms
Hold then sudden cut
I see you in the dark
See you dancing with the lights
Copying your breath
Tracing so you know that it's all 'cause of you

Hole, follow from the wire
Where it goes
Somewhere down the hall
In through your hands
Out your mouth
In a whisper
In through the walls
Where you start

Tell me what's the time
And how far left to go
'Cause all these dirty blinds
Keep us way to slow
So baby let it out
Let it burn into the sky
Watch it as it goes
Say you trust me then I know
That is all 'cause of you
