

Dancing In Your Dreams

Junior Doctor

Feels so weird being here when you feel so distant
Can you hear me, are we disconnected
Are you there, anywhere, did I somehow miss it
There might be something that I'm just not getting
Right in front of me, I watch you sleep
And don't know what you're thinking

You've got this way of hiding away from me
But you're not as far as you seem
If I could just get through, I know I would hear you say
You're dancing in your dreams

Na na na, na na na, na na na na na na...

I've been home all alone, counting every second
Waiting for a call that's just not coming
There's no trace of your face, still I can't forget it
I wish I could stop my mind from running
Here inside my head, your silhouette is all that keeps me going

You're a million miles away, and there's so much left to say
You're a million miles away from me, dancing in your dreams
