

Mirror Mirror

Junior Doctor

Is this who I am? Is this who I've always been?
Is this who I'll be when I finally reach the end?
I've heard it said that people can't change
Well if all of that's true am I destined to stay
Just who I am, just who I've always been?

Cause when I look in the mirror
Nothing seems to get any clearer
So I keep asking you Mirror Mirror
Is this still the face that you remember?
I'm stuck in a stare
Is there anyone there?
And I'm still asking you Mirror Mirror
Is this the face of the man that you remember? Do you remember?

Is this who I am?
Is this who I've always been?
Why can't I forget and why can't I just pretend
All of the things I wish I hadn't done
Were all just bad dreams that burned away with the sun
Is this who I am?
Is this who I've always been?

Am I still who you met?
Am I changed by regret?
Do I still look like me?
Am I who you thought I'd be?
Because I lie when I speak
Tell the truth when I sing.
But lately I don't sing anything
So who am I expecting you to see?
