

Don't Let It Pass

Junip

It escaped your attention, a single moment
Now you're running down wrong tracks
Left a notice on the pavement
Don't think you'll be ever coming back

Haven't you noticed
All the chickens are running wild
Have your lotus ready
We're bringing out the chimes

It escaped your attention, that single moment
While you were out changing lanes
Left a notice on the pavement
Don't think you'll be ever coming back

Haven't you noticed
All the chickens are running wild
Have your lotus ready
We're bringing out the chimes

Haven't you noticed
all the soldiers are running mad
Have your lotus ready
We're bringing out the chimes
Hey we're bringing out the chimes
