Here ya go honey yeah here's some Patron You better sip it slow, it's bad to the bone Don't want you gettin' too far gone And I have to tote ya out of here roll you on home Keep on shaking that money maker They're just jealous just bunch of haters The rest of this night's gonna be what we make it There's some wild in that smile baby what you say we take it Off the beaten path One foot on the dash and one on the floorboard Off the beaten path Country rock crankin' through speakers in the four door Silverado baby do you wanna go Out where the good love grows Off the beaten path, yeah I could sit right here and watch you dance all night 'Til the sun comes up 'til they turn out the lights That drunk son of a buck's 'bout to have him a fight If he don't watch his step he'll get a left then a right What you mean you never sat in a jacked up truck Well I'll be damned girl you're in luck There's a little spot out there I'd like to show ya By the light of the radio I'd like to get to get to know ya Off the beaten path One foot on the dash and one on the floorboard Off the beaten path Country rock crankin' through speakers in the four door Silverado baby do you wanna go Out where the good love grows Off the beaten path, yeah Like a deep groove country song baby I wanna turn you on, yeah Off the beaten path One foot on the dash and one on the floorboard Off the beaten path Country rock crankin' through speakers in the four door Silverado baby do you wanna go Out where the good love grows Off the beaten path, yeah Off the beaten path Baby let me take ya Baby let me take ya

Baby let me take ya Off the beaten path