

Laury

Justin Nozuka

The night of heavy rain
When we ran into the park
Took our clothes off
Oh, laughing with no regard for grace

Lying in your embrace
Thought I knew my place
Be soft and I'd be brave
Heavy worry, oh
Couldn't keep up with the pace

Laury
Don't leave with a heavy heart
I love you
But not like til' death do us part
Laury
I know that you'll find someone
I love you
But we both know where I come from

When the winds of change
Come blowing
I won't sway

Driving across the plains
With the windows down
Toronto bound
Sinatra sang Chicago as we came

Singing
Ah ah ting tang walla walla bing bang
Riding just the same
As in My Girl
Was it written in the grain?

Laury
Don't leave with a heavy heart
I love you
But not like til' death do us part
Laury
I know that you'll find someone
I love you

But we both know where I come from

Where the winds of change
Come blowing
I won't sway

If you want me to
I'll be right there
And if you need me to
I'll be right there

If you want me to
I'll be right there
I'll be right there

Though it's not me, that man
I'll always be your man

If you want me to
I'll be right there
If you need me to
I'll be right there
If you want me to
I'll be right there
Oh though it's not me that man

Laury (I'll be right there)
Don't leave with a heavy heart
I love you (I'll be right there)
But not like til' death do us part
Laury
I know that you'll find someone (I'll be right there)
I love you (I'll be right there)
But we both know where I come from

When the winds of change
Come calling
I won't sway oh oh
